SERVERS

We are looking to reintroduce to our Communion and Celebratory Services a team of servers. This would be on a rota basis the more volunteers we have the less often volunteers would be required. This is open to all young and old male or female. Training if required can be given. If you would like to join this team please speak to Rev. Charles or Sue Turner.

REFLECTIONS

February 2019

At the beginning of February, I will take down the last of the Christmas decorations. It's not because I'm forgetful, but I do use them to remind myself that the celebration of Christmas lasts for 40 days, even if the chocolates don't. Lent and Easter aren't too far away, but before we get there, the next few weeks bring us to something the Church calls 'Ordinary Time'. 'Ordinary' is a bit of an unpopular word – sometimes ordinary things are thought to be plain or unexciting. We often want things to be extraordinary or special instead, but we need the ordinary as well.

Ordinary time is ordered or measured time. It is time to live in the present moment, time that is counted and marked not to wish it away or count it down but to savour and enjoy it. Ordinary time celebrates that God is involved in the everyday as well as the extraordinary. Ordinary time makes special times like Christmas or Easter more special. Living for God week-by-week on ordinary days like Monday to Saturday mean that we will approach Sundays differently when we gather together.

The colour of Ordinary Time is green – the colour of growth. Living for God in the everyday helps us to become measured people - people who celebrate the good, grieve the bad, and notice where God is to be found in the ordinary.

REMEMBER IN PRAYER

Alasdair Rowan, Paul Towers, Matthew Williams, Margaret Wykes, Pat Gilby, Joan Gutteridge, Joyce Ford.

Those in our prayer corner. Anyone known to s personally.

Those who have died, Patricia O'Neill, Sandra Lavis and their families that mourn.

LENT 2019

Wednesday 6th March is Ash Wednesday. There will be services of Holy Communion at 10am and 7.30pm, with an opportunity to receive a cross of ashes as a sign of repentance, as we begin Lent together

LENT BOOK GROUP

Each week, we will meet and discuss a chapter of Paula Gooder's Let Me Go There: The Spirit of Lent. It's a very accessible and insightful book that will help us on our Lenten journey. Please speak to Charles if you're interested.

LENT BOOK GROUP UPDATE

Thank you for the expressions of interest in the Lent Book Group looking at a different chapter of Paula Gooder's Let Me Go There: The Spirit of Lent each week.

The group will meet on Tuesday evenings 7:30-9pm at the Vicarage (12th March-9th April).

Several people have said that Tuesday evenings would be difficult, so we are exploring the possibility of a Wednesday afternoon group as well. To help with planning, please sign up on the sheet at the back of Church by Sunday 24th February. If you possibly can, please get hold of a copy of the book. If that would be difficult for you, please put a tick by your name and we will do an online order week beginning 25th February.

ELECTORAL ROLL 2019

Every 6 years each Parish has to create a new electoral roll which means that everyone on the old roll has to re apply to join the new roll. There is a time schedule within which this has to be achieved and applications need to have been received in church by 10 03 2019.

If you are on the existing electoral roll and wish to be on the new roll there are applications forms in church – these forms will be available until 10 03 2019.

If you are not on the existing electoral roll and wish to make further enquiries about this, please speak to Rev Charles, Anne McCreath, Sue Turner or May Davis who will be pleased to discuss this with you.

Also included is a consent form for completion – this allows you to give permission to be contacted by St James' Church if you so wish.
