Those in our prayer corner. Anyone known to us personally.

Those who have died: Brenda Marston
And their families that mourn.

REFLECTIONS

I'm writing this on holiday at Amble in Northumberland on the north east coast .Amble calls itself 'the friendliest port' and people do their best to live up to the title. A few days ago we were in Alnwick (there's a new railway there). David Scott (once vicar of St James) once told me that he was born in Alnwick but when he was a boy his parents 'moved south to Gateshead'. It was hard for a Coventry kid like me to imagine!

Soon our Parish Pilgrims will be up here in the real North remembering St. Aidan and St. Cuthbert and walking to Lindisfarne. There is something wonderfully genuine about the saints of the North. On July 25th we remembered St. James an ambitious and noisy fisherman. He tells us that faith needs to be witnessed to by genuine good works.

Soon we will begin a new era of faith and good works – and genuine friendliness – as we grow together' under new management'.

LADIES THAT NATTER GROUP

The Ladies that Natter, is a group run by the group.

No particular place or time, just when someone offers to do something. So far we have had visits to many places, talks, and meals out.

Notification for these events is by e-mail or post. If you would like to join us or know more please speak to Joy who will add you to the mailing list. There is also information and photographs on the church website.

Our next event is August 15th when Ginny Joy and Pam are doing a traditional Afternoon Tea. Price £7 in church. If you would like to join us as a taster, or would just like to join us on this occasion you are most welcome please speak to one of us by 12th August.

DATA PROTECTION CONSENT FORMS.

The new data protection regulations stipulate that all individuals on whom personal information is held must advise the organisation who holds it how they wish this data to be used. Therefore, your co-operation would be greatly appreciated in completing a consent form confirming your instructions to St James' Church PCC, who are acting as Data Controller.

You will find clip boards with consent forms attached at the rear of church. The completed consent forms can be placed in a box at the rear of the church. If you have any queries please see Ann Sue or May.

Thank you for your assistance .
